

Community Policy

Thorburn Australia aspires to become a triple bottom line company by considering the environmental, social and economic impacts in all of its activities.

As such, we will endeavour to never intentionally produce harmful or destructive products or projects, will consider all of our stakeholders including the local community, indigenous peoples and disadvantaged groups and consult these groups whenever necessary.

Thorburn Australia will contribute to the community where ever and whenever we can.

At Thorburn Australia we respect all views without regard to ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, marital status or systems of belief.

This policy is endorsed by the company Director on 10 June 2011.
