

Engineering Management Policy

Thorburn Australia believes successful projects are the product of quality engineering and planning.

At Thorburn Australia we shall provide the systematic and disciplined approach to the engineering endeavour. By applying systems, procedures, monitoring and reporting to all facets of our designs we shall ensure a sound and verifiable solution to our Client's problems.

Thorburn Australia shall provide all designs under the guidance of Registered Professional Engineers (RPEQ) as required by the Professional Engineers Act 2002 in Queensland.

Our Client's can expect and trust our professional integrity, compliance and commitment to providing innovative, cost effective and genuinely engineered designs.

This policy is endorsed by the company Director on 10 June 2011.
